

In celebration of almost two months of video series fun, this week's activity puts your new found ocean literacy to the test! The answers in this crossword puzzle can be found throughout all seven of our videos! Send us your completed crossword puzzle and we will send you one free admission to the aquarium!

Down:

Across:

- 1: Grunt Sculpins disguise themselves as this animal
- 2: Black-Eyed Hermits favourite sea shell
- 3: Black-Eyed Hermits get along with this species
- 4: Sunflower Stars move using this part of their bodies
- 10: Bay Pipefish camouflage in this marine plant
- 11: Bay Pipefish are related to this tropical fish
- 12: Green Urchins have this many teeth

- 5: The Puget Sound King Crab uses its right claw for this action
- 6: Black-Eyed Hermits smell using this part of their bodies
- 7: In addition to spines, Green Urchins use these for defence
- 8: Opalescent Nudibranchs defend themselves using these organs on their backs
- 9: The Green Urchin's main predator
- 13: Puget Sound King Crab's legs end in this structure
- 14: Sunflower stars detect light using this organ at the end of their arms

Send us your completed crossword puzzle by email at: info@DiscoveryPassageAquarium.ca
 Or tag us in your instagram post: @DPAquarium, #DPAquarium
 Or send it to us as a facebook message: Discovery Passage Aquarium

Videos are found on our website at DiscoveryPassageAquarium.ca!

